Corona Vacation Bible School was a Huge Hit!

28 children, as many adult and teen volunteers and That Puppet Team had a great time Playing for the Kingdom as we learned about how much Jesus loves us and wants to be our Lord and Savior. We sang, we played games, we did crafts. We listened to bible stories and watched the puppets. We ate snacks and shared lunch together each day. It was an amazing week as we watched the kids start to grasp in their own way how much God loves them and that we care for them too. And it was just plain fun! The energy that happens during VBS is so wonderful. If you couldn't be a part of it this year, I hope you'll make plans to join us next summer! We'll see you then!

A Word From the New "Editor-In-Training"

Whew! My first newsletter is finally done. While not nearly as professional as what we have come to expect from our former editor, the Famous Bob True, I'm practicing. Look for improvements as the months go by! CAH

FROM MY MIND'S EYE...

SMALL GROUP POT LUCK

All those who are interested in learning more about and/or becoming a member of a Corona small group please join us for an honest-to-goodness pot luck supper at Cal and Linda Dunlap's house the evening of Friday, September 11th at 6:30 p.m. Their address is 1466 S. Lee Court, Lakewood, 80232. By honest-to-goodness pot luck, we merely request that you bring some food to share with four or five others—it's always fun and exciting to see what we'll be having for dinner.

Come in comfy clothes, because some of us will probably end up sitting on the floor. We're hoping to pack our house full of folks, since we have found that being a member of a small group provides great opportunities for "one-anothering," growing in grace and in the knowledge of God, and becoming truly connected to the body of Christ at Corona.

Please RSVP your plan to attend by calling the Dunlap's at 720-962-0533. If we're unavailable, just leave your message on our voice-mail.

Looking forward to seeing you,

Linda Dunlap

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR GUIDING GROUP TEAM

"Many thanks to all those who have shared their experiences, stories and perspectives with us as we have come to you for the Listening Conversation Interviews. You have been so thoughtful and so willing to share that you have made our efforts a pleasure. We look forward to sharing with you what we learn from these conversations, and look forward to involving the whole church in the next phase of our process the Church360. You'll be hearing more about this in September."

-Your Guiding Group Team Members,

Elaine Connell, Peter Hack, Julie Lundquist, Pam Marsh, Linda Meyer and Virginia Tidwell

I hope your summer has gone well. It is hard to believe it is almost over. What amazing weather we have had! "Weather" you have enjoyed the rain or not, it certainly has made the green lawns and flowerbeds flourish in Denver.

Our July 5th All-Church Picnic was an amazing time together. We had some of the best food I can remember at a Corona event! At this picnic the Deacons introduced our new or renewed Deacon districts. I believe you will certainly be hearing more about these in the near future. We had excellent children games, volleyball, baseball and a beanbag toss called "cornhole". Deacons well done! Thank you to Gabe and Kristy Jaramillo and Deanna Henderson for organizing the games. For those of you who were unable to come to the all-church picnic, my suggestion for you is: "Next Year". It was a great picture of community and wonderful fellowship.

We have a new Corona Corner newsletter Editor - Carol Ann Hearn. For any articles you would like to submit, her email address carolhearn1@gmail.com Kristol Kumar is going to be photographer at-large and would love pictures you might contribute for the newsletter. E-mail for Kristol is bellatrix1@msn.com It was great to visit our family and friends in Oregon. We were in the Portland, Salem and The Dalles areas. We stopped at Bonneville Dam and were reacquainted with eight-foot long sturgeon. My personal highlight of our trip was spending a day at Canon Beach. As good as it was to visit those we have missed; it is great to be back in Denver and to sleep in one's own bed. Thank you for all the prayers while we were gone.

"May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit." Romans 15:13

In God's amazing grip,

Pastor John

Corona College age students Note that 6,358 have already committed to Urbana 09! Let the Corona missions committee (John Walbert) know if you are interested in going to this conference! Maybe we can help.

(Madison, WI) – With less than six months before the beginning of Urbana 09, thousands of registrants have already committed to attend InterVarsity’s 22nd triennial student missions conference in St. Louis, MO. Urbana 09 will be held December 27-31, 2009, at the Edward Jones Dome and The America’s Center.

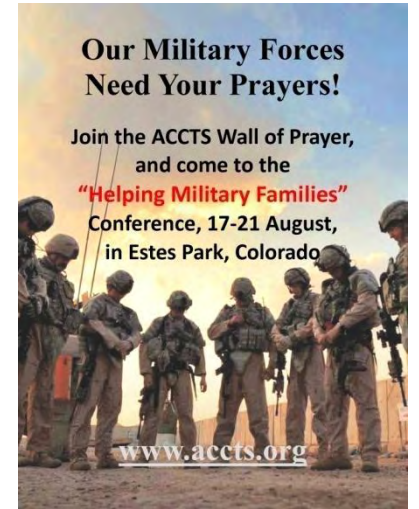

A total of 6,358 people signed up by the first registration deadline (June 30) to take advantage of the lowest conference fee. This was a larger than expected number of people to commit to Urbana by the early registration deadline, and comes despite a bleak economic environment that has stretched thin the resources of many mission agencies, ministries, and businesses.

Urbana director Jim Tebbe released the following statement:

“This is wonderful news for the InterVarsity community and our ministry partners. Urbana, our fellowship’s largest event, draws participants from a diverse array of churches, campus fellowships, Christian colleges and seminaries, mission agencies, and other groups. It challenges approximately 20,000 people every three years with the spiritual and physical needs of the world, and the biblical basis for missions. Urbana is also honored to host the largest gathering of mission organizations in North America and to provide participants with tangible ways to use their gifts to engage in missions.”

Corona Reaches out to “Help Military Families”

This month the Henderson and Dunlap families from Corona are helping with this military family’s conference at Estes Park YMCA Conference Center. Ten denominations, twenty para-church organizations, and delegates from fifteen countries will take part. ACCTS is a military mission’s organization that is supported by Corona.
